Healthcare Business Expert

Empowering Medical, Marketing, and MSL Leaders to Effectively
Achieve Results in Healthcare,
Business, and Life

Dr. Günter Umbach (a board-certified gynecologist) works as international consultant, trainer and author helping leaders and their teams in pharma and medical technology companies succeed in the market place.

They benefit from his experience as Medical Director, Marketing Director, Global Brand Leader, and Medical Science Liaison Community Moderator in the healthcare industry.

Günter is a former research fellow at the University of Texas in Houston, a Senior Associate of Management Centre Europe in Brussels, and a guest professor or visiting faculty member at several European universities.

His corporate clients include more than fifty global and mid-size pharmaceutical and medical technology companies – as well as advertising agencies, clinical research organisations and communication firms.

He has given consulting sessions, inhouse workshops, public seminars and keynotes in 17 countries – as well as presentation trainings for high-level medical scientific experts and international thought leaders.

Gunter's recommendations are also available in his published articles, business books, podcasts, videos and on www.umbachpartner.com.
